4579 Aging, Body Wisdom, part 1

Instructor: Debbie Vanderniet

Fee:

Date: 4-19

Day: Wed

Time: 1:00-2:30

Location: CHE 217

Content: The human body can make its own medicine! This course will help participants learn that the effects normally associated with aging (heart disease, diabetes, arthritis, weakness, etc.) are not an inevitable. Whether the participants are looking to avoid age-related issues or reverse them, this class will provide scientific-based information and guidelines for achieving a high quality, healthy lifestyle. Our bodies are designed to live long and be healthy if we know how to care for and feed them properly, exercise regularly, overcome stress, and develop a positive attitude. You will learn how to make dietary and lifestyle choices to maximize the production of nitric oxide and "open the pharmacy" within your body. By making wise choices, individuals can look forward to maintaining a healthy and productive lifestyle. Part 1

Credentials: Debbie Vanderniet lives in Rigby, Idaho, and is fully trained and qualified in ways the body can heal itself.

4581 Aging: Processed Food is Detrimental part 3 Instructor: Debbie Vanderniet Fee:

Date: 5-3 Day: Wed Time: 1:00-2:30 Location: CHE 217

Content: Processed, refined food is detrimental to human health, and it may be as addictive as cocaine. Whether the participants are looking to avoid age-related issues or reverse them, this class will provide scientific-based information and guidelines. We human beings are biologically programmed to desire sugar and fat. The consumption of sugar and sugar-laden products has skyrocketed. Furthermore, processed, refined foods are typically stripped of micronutrients. These foods are consumed at an astonishingly high rate in western societies. This class will show participants how to reverse this trend in their own lives and make healthier life-saving choices daily.

Credentials: Debbie Vanderniet is fully trained and qualified in understanding nutrients and aging.

Facilitator: Vicky Van Sickle Email: victorialynnvs@hotmail.com Phone: 208-589-6055

4608 Is an E Bike Right for You?

Instructor: Ryan Edge

Fee:

Date: 5-4

Day: Thurs

Time: 10:00-11:30

Location: CHE 210

Content: The lecture will provide information on the types of e bikes and the appropriate use of e bikes. E bikes come in a variety of configurations from town cruisers to downhill mountain bikes. What type of bike is appropriate for you? There are three classes of e bike based on the power rating and maximum speed that the motor will support. Where an e bike can be ridden is closely tied to the class of the bike. Other places do not allow e bikes at all. Determine where you want to ride and select a bike that is legal. The talk will also cover loading and carrying your bike on your car.

Credentials: Ryan Edge is manager of Fitzgerald's Bicycles in Idaho Falls with years of experience with analog and electric bicycles.

4617 Riding the Great Divide Mtn Bike Route

Instructor: Dave Wilding

Fee:

Date: 5-18 Day: Thurs Time: 10:00-12:00 Location: CHE 213

Content: The Great Divide Mountain Bike Route (GDMBR), developed and mapped in 1997 by the Adventure Cycling Association, is approximately 2,700 miles long and is considered by many to be the birthplace of bike packing as a sport. The route follows the Continental Divide and is 90% off-pavement using high-quality dirt roads, gravel roads, trails, and a few short sections of unmaintained tracks. Bike packing the GDMBR requires only intermediate off-road mountain biking skills, but it is a painstaking test of endurance based on the sheer scale of the route, with over 200,000 feet (60,960 meters) of elevation gain and loss. Follow along with Dave Wilding who completed this ride the summer of 2022 with some days riding over 100 miles on dirt roads.

Credentials: Dave is the owner of Dave's Bike Shop in Downtown IF and a long-time distance rider. This was the most challenging of any ride he has done.
